

We Are the East

Drake Oranwood

$\text{♩} = 80$

G C D D7 G C D

In the sun - rise, we march through the fog on the
In the work of our hands and the work of our
For the long months we plan, put - ting work be - fore
We re - mem - ber the times we each felt so a -

8 G C Am D7 D

field, 'til your eye sees the bold East - ern ban - ner re - vealed. There's a hearts, shap - ing glass, shap - ing met - al, and thread to our arts, we are fun, for each pot that we scrub, for each list that we run, be we lone, though we lived in a king - dom that we'd nev - er known. Now we've

13 G C D G CMaj7

clam - or a - ris - ing from each sword and shield, and we roar as we learn - ing, then teach - ing, all play - ing our parts, to bring all of our cook, be we roy - al, we do what needs done, for the splen - dor that found it, em - braced it, and made it our own, and we're bound here by

18 Am7 D D7 G C

en - ter the fray. Though on this day our for - ces are crafts to new heights. As we sit 'round the fire sing - ing must be ar - rayed. We re - searched our de - signs: are the so man - y ties. It's re - mark - a - ble now to dis -

23 D G C Am D7

dwarfed by the foe, we are Ty - gers u - ni - ted, with val - or to old songs and new, and our voic - es com - bine, wheth - er man - y or let - ters just right? Scratch - ing ink in - to scroll, work - ing late in the cov - er that we're each a part of this tap - e - stry, that much is

28 D G C B7 Em7

show. Ev - ry warr - ior de - fen - ding our realm blow for blow. Win or few, there's a bond we cre - ate that feels hal - lowed and true, to sus - night, 'til the gasp from the court as it catch - es the light marks a clear. In these mo - ments of joy, we fly back through the years, and the

33 CMaj7 Am7 D

lose, they'll re - mem - ber this day.
tain us on long win - ter nights.
mem' - ry that won't ev - er fade.
cen - tu - ries fade from our eyes.

36 D7 Bm Bm7 Em Em7 Am Am7 D

We are the fight-ers. We are the mak-ers. We are in ser-vice pre - par-ing the feast.

44 D7 Bm Bm7 Em Em7 Am7 D 1.-3. G

We are the el-ders. We are the chil-dren. We are all fam'-ly, for we are the East.

52 4. G Am7 Bm Bm7 Em Em7 Am Am7

East. We are the fight-ers. We are the mak-ers. We are in ser-vice pre - par-ing the feast. We are the el-ders. We are the chil-dren. We are all fam'-ly, for we are the

60 D D7 Bm Bm7 Em Em7 Am7 D

68 G Em Am7 D G Em7 CMaj7 Am7 D

East. We are all fam'-ly, for we are the East. We are all fam'-ly... for

77 D7 G C D G

we are the East.