

Pack Out Day

Drake Oranwood

$\text{♩} = 76$

D A7 $\%$ D Bm Em7 A7 D

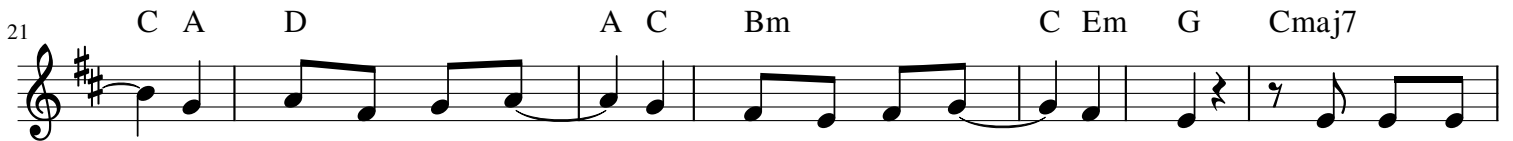

I've been deep in a dream but I'm cov-ered in steam, 'cause my tent is be - gin - work-ing non - stop as I grab the car top that we'll stuff on the roof load-ing our crap, and we try not to snap at each oth - er with each

- ning to bake. Now I'm ach-ing and sore like I've been through the war, with our gear. As it o - pens, I freeze: Oh my God, it's the keys pass-ing hour. Soon it's hugs and good - byes, and a new dis - tant prize, and it hits me at once as I wake. I've spent two weekson en - chant - we've been look-ing for since we got here! Our days were class-es and throw - as we dream of A - C. and a shower! We packed a year of ad - ven -

- ed ground that will van - ish now just like Brig - a - doon. It's the e -
- ing knives, we made new best friends, and we rode on watch. Our nights were
- tures in four - teen days and nights, and I'm feel - ing blessed. I know that vent that I planned for all year, and now once a - gain it's o - ver too soon... flirt - ing and danc - ing and song, in a cloud of mead and por - ter and scotch... some years are bet - ter than oth - ers, but this year's war was one of the best...

35 A7 D Bm Em7 A7 D

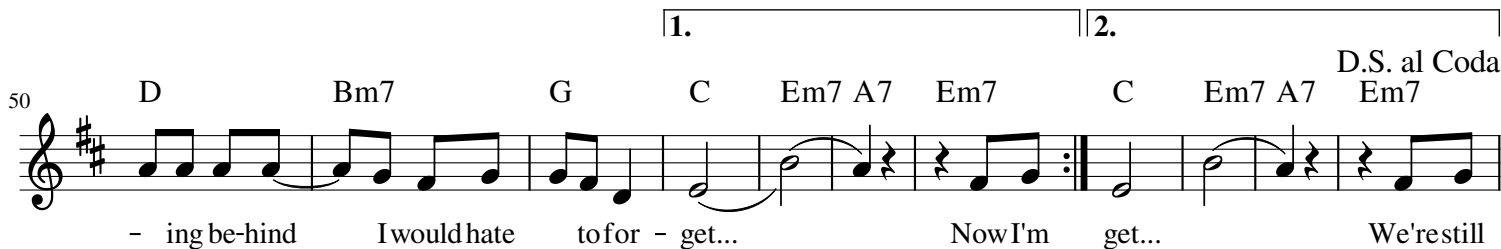

It's packout day, and it hurts me to say, I'm so sad to be go-

43 Bm7 C G A To Coda D Bm G A

- ing, I'm not ready yet. It's packout day, and when I drive a-way, what I'm leav-

50 1. 2. D.S. al Coda

- ing be-hind I would hate to for - get... Now I'm get... We're still

61 D Bm Em7 A7 D Bm7 C G

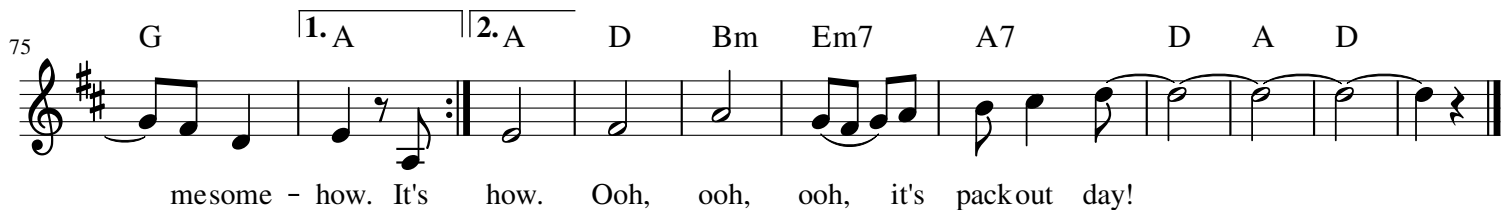

packout day, and I'm hap - py to say, that I'm sad to be go - ing, but I'm ready now.

68 A D Bm G A D Bm7

It's packout day, and as I drive a-way, what I'm leav - ing be-hind will come with mesome - how. It's how. Ooh, ooh, ooh, it's packout day!

75 1. A 2. A D Bm Em7 A7 D A D